Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between 12:00 Mon 12 Jun 2023 and
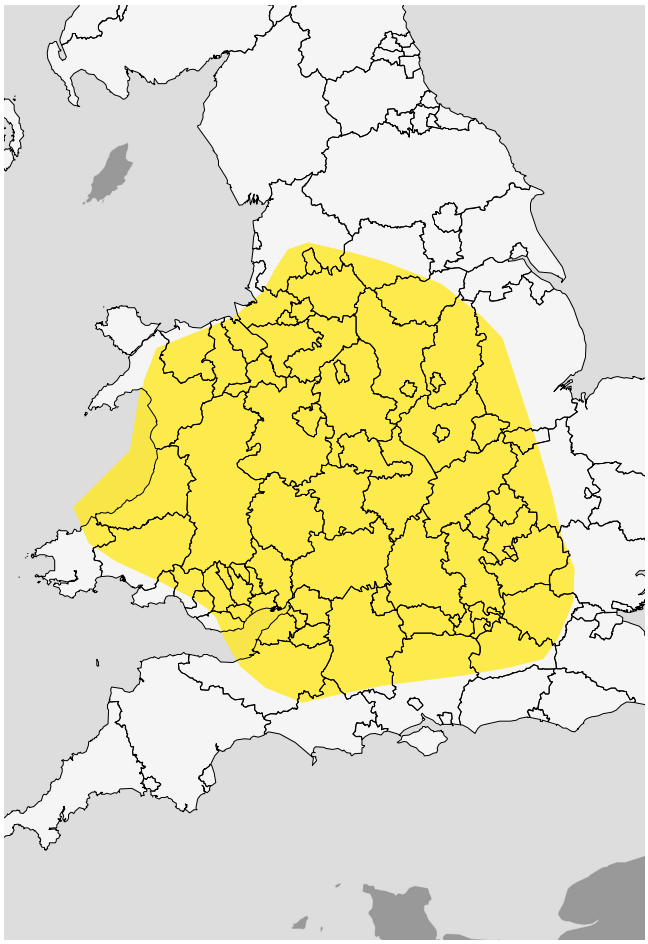
21:00 Mon 12 Jun 2023



Thunderstorms and torrential downpours may bring disruption to parts of England and Wales during Monday.

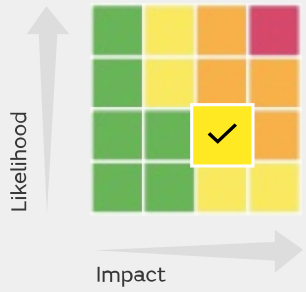
What to expect

- Flooding of homes and businesses could happen quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities might become cut off if roads flood
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- Power cuts might occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life

Further details

Thunderstorms and torrential downpours are expected to break out across central England and Wales during Monday. These will be slow moving and intense leading to some large accumulations with in excess of 30 mm in an hour for some locations and the potential for 60-80 mm or more in a few hours where thunderstorms align for a time.

Frequent lightning and hail are likely to be additional hazards.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
